Experience

Alice focuses her practice on estate planning, trust and estate administration, and tax-driven wealth transfer planning. She advises individuals, families, and fiduciaries on a wide range of matters, from foundational estate plans to sophisticated estate, gift, and generation-skipping transfer tax strategies.

Alice regularly represents individual and institutional fiduciaries in trust and probate administration in Kansas and Missouri, including matters involving complex estates, trust modifications, and post-mortem planning. She has extensive experience guiding clients through advanced planning and administration issues and is known for providing practical, thoughtful solutions tailored to each client's goals.

Alice is a Fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC) and is actively involved in the trust and estate profession as a writer, speaker, and bar leader, and has presented frequently on estate planning and fiduciary topics. Alice has also contributed to the development of trust legislation in Missouri.
