Experience

Sara joined the firm after graduating from the University of Richmond School of Law in 2021. Her practice focuses on estate planning, including drafting Wills, Powers of Attorney, and Revocable and Irrevocable Trusts. Sara also implements strategies for gift, estate, and generation-skipping transfer tax planning. Beyond estate planning, she provides guidance to fiduciaries in the administration of probate and trust estates. Outside of work, Sara enjoys hiking, running, and traveling with her husband and their three sons.
